As far as I am able to judge, I think our people would much prefer Judge Parker for the Democratic nomines. Wo, want a safe man who can win, and not one who depends upon winning with his money instead of with sound Democratic principles.

BUTTON, JOSEPH, Memeber State Central Committee. Appointation: I believe the people of my section are for Judge Parker.

BRUIN, D., Chairman Committee, Aidle, Loudeun county: So far as I am advised, sentiment is largely for Parker.

BAGBY, Wm. F., Chairman Committee, King and Queen Courthouse: I have heard it discussed very little, but I think there is more sentiment in favor of Judge Parker than Mr. Hearst.

BOOTH, G. L., Member State Central Committee, Alexandria: Sentiment is in favor of Parker as be-tween him and Hearst.

BLAIR, R. W., Chairman Committee, Martinsville, Henry county: As far as I know, sentiment is for Par-iker.

BEEKHAM, J. M., Chairman Commite, Culpeper: Sentiment is decidedly for Parker.

BOURNE, J. S., Chairman Committee, Independence, Grayson county: I think that the Democratic sentiment in this community and throughout Gray-son county is overwhelmingly for Judge Pharer.

BARNES, THOS, H., Member State Discentive Committee, Elwood, Nanse-mond county: I think sentiment is crystalizing on

Parker,

CRADDOCK, A. P., Member State Central Committee, Lynchburg:
Between Judge Alton B. Parker and William R. Hearst, Parker all the time, I have recently interviewed a good many of our leading citizens, and find they think at this time that Parker is the most available man that the Democratic party can nominate. Have not seen a single one that favors Hearst.

COOKE, GEO. M., Chairman Committee, Emporia, Greensville county: I think the Democrats of my county are for Judge Parker.

CHAPPELL, W. C., Chairman Commit-ce, New Store, Buckingham county; Sentiment is for Parker.

CHRISTIAN, J. H., Chairman Commit-Sentiment is for Parker.

COUSTIS, J. M., Member State Central Committee, Newport News, Va. I think Parker is stronger than Hearst in this section.

CLARKE, T. L., Chairman Committee, Stuart, Patrick county: I think our people prefer Parker.

CARPENTER, E. W., Member State Central Committee, Harrisonburg: I think sentiment is decidedly for Par-ker. Hearst has no following.

GHINN, J. W., Chairman Committee, Warsaw, Richmond county: Sentiment is largely for Parker.

COGBILL, P. V., Chesterfield C. H.:
I think the sentiment of this community is favorable to Judge Parker.

DUKE, WM. R., Chairman Committee, Charlottesville, Albemarie county: It is impossible to say what the feel-ing in this community is, there being both Parker and Hearst men here.

DEY, W. W., Member State Central Committee, Norfolk: As far as 1 can determine at this date, the sentiment is in favor of Judge Parker.

DOAK, G. W., Chairman Committee, Tazewell: Decidedly for Parker. I believe ninetynine out of every hundred is for Parker as between Parker and Hearst.

EGGLESTON, D. Q., Member State Central Committee, Richmond; Sentiment is for Parker,

ECHOLS, EDWARD, Member State
Executive Committee, Staunton:
My opinion is, as between these two,
the sentiment is in favor of Parker.
There is a Hearst following here in Staunton and I understand a club will be organized in his interest. Notwithstanding this, I think the prevailing sentiment is not favorable to his nomination.

EASLEY, JOHN C., Member State

Central Committee, Henrico:
Yours of the 14th instant received. In reply to your inquiry as to whether I prefer Judge Alton B. Parker or Mr. Wm. R. Hearst as Democratic nomines for President, will say that as I know neither of the gentlemen personally. I have no means of judging of their fitness except by their series and president in the layer that the gentlemen spersonally. I have no means of junging of their fitness except by their general reputations. I believe that much of the unrest new prevalent in the dominant party in national politics is due to a feeling of insecurity.

If the Democrats wish to take advantage of the opportunity, we must offer to the country a man who combines the necessary qualifications with a lack of that erratic disposition which keeps business in constant fear. Nothing is more harassing than uncertainty, and a chief executive who is an unknown quantity is a public misfortune. Our business future is good, unless confidence is disturbed. Under these circumstances an able, conservative man is the imperative necessity of the hour. If the right man is nominated, he will receive the support of many dissaussied Republicans, which will greatly increase our chance of victory.

matter has been but little agitaled as yet.

SMITH, FLOYD T., Member State Central Committee, Heathsville:
In answer to your inquiry as to which I Prefer as hominee of the Democratte party, Judge Parker or W. R. Hearst, let me say, I have no sympathy with too much effort to mould public sentiment and likewise none with the abuse of individual candidates to attain such end. I have a genuine appreciation for the loyalty of those Democrats that surrendered their individual opinions to that of the great majority of the party in the not long ago past, and little consideration for the self-constituted wisdom of those Democrats with Republican proclivities, who esteemed themselves wiser than the vast majority of their hitherto party aspirants, and I have therefore little faith in the pretentions of such, either to party loyalty or to party dictation.

Yet under existing conditions I am for live issues with no sycophancy for past or present leaders, as well as for as little humiliation as possible of those whose principals stood the crucial test of democracy, at a time when those who had fattened upon its favors became the pampered spirits of Republican favors. I believe with a large number of Democrats that voluntary suggestions from such sources, tend to irritate more than to alleviate existing troubles. We must get together the cry is, but always in a manviate existing troubles. We must get to-gether the cry is, but always in a man-ner to establish the wisdom and patriot-ism of those who not long since were regarded as unfaithful to the battle scared ranks of Democracy.

We need a leader imbued with Democratic principles not wiser, nor better than his party, but equal to the emergency of moulding the best interest of the people along with confidence in his ability to fulfill the promises of bettering present condition. Judge Allon B. Parker stands for purity of character and loyalty to party fealty and with such a man success means a blessing to the country instead of a curse and therefore all good Democrats can hope for his normation and election. As far as I am capable of ascertaining the sentiment of this section accords with those views.
